2.0 Use of land
19/01/2006
VC37

2.1 Comprehensive Development Plan
19/01/2006
VC37

A comprehensive development plan is a generalised plan showing the main land use intentions for the area. More detailed intentions and development and use proposals may be prepared and shown in a local structure plan.

2.2 Local structure plan
19/01/2006
VC37

No subdivision, buildings or works may take place before the land to be subdivided or developed is included in a local structure plan prepared to the satisfaction of the responsible authority.

Where a local structure plan has not been approved, the responsible authority may grant a permit to construct a building or to construct or carry out works, provided it is satisfied that the buildings or works will not prejudice the preparation of a local structure plan for the general use. An application for a permit must be referred to relevant referral authorities.

The local structure plan must be generally consistent with the relevant comprehensive development plan, to the satisfaction of the responsible authority. With the agreement of the responsible authority, the local structure plan may be implemented in stages and may be composed of one or more separate plans.

Upon application by the owner of the land concerned a local structure plan may be amended to the satisfaction of the responsible authority.

2.3 Content of the local structure plan
19/01/2006
VC37

The local structure plan may include detailed plans of sub areas within the plan as well as supporting documentation that assists to clarify the nature of development proposed.

The local structure plan must show, where appropriate:

- the proposed development and use of each part of the land;
- a proposed major road layout pattern;
- population targets;
- open space, recreation and leisure facilities including where relevant proposed waling and cycling links;
- proposed retarding basins, lakes, watercourses and drainage lines and the means by which these will be managed and water quality maintained;
- physical and community infrastructure, including the arrangement for the provision and funding of development contributions;
- proposed public transport facilities;
- proposed commercial and community centres and facilities in a sustainable hierarchy;
- overall landscape proposals;
- sites of conservation, heritage and archaeological significance and the means by which they will be managed;
- any other matters which relate to the development of the land.

2.4

Use of the Land

The use of the land must be consistent with the provisions of any relevant local structure plan.

A use must not detrimentally affect the amenity of the neighbourhood, including through the:

- transport or materials, goods or commodities to or from the land;
- appearance of any building, works or materials;
- emission of noise, artificial light, vibration, smell, fumes, smoke, vapour, steam, soot, ash, dust, waste water, waste products, grit or oil.

2.5

VC37

Application requirements

An application to use land must be accompanied by the following information, as appropriate:

- the purpose of the use and the type of activities which will be carried out;
- the likely effects, if any, on adjoining land, including noise levels, traffic, the hours of delivery and dispatch of goods and materials, hours of operation and light spill, solar access and glare;
- the means of maintaining land not required for immediate use.
- if an industry or warehouse:
 - the type and quantity of goods to be stored, processed or produced;
 - whether a Works Approval or Waste Discharge Licence is required from the Environmental Protection Authority;
 - whether a licence under the Dangerous Goods Act 1985 is required;
- the likely effects on adjoining land including air-borne emissions and emissions to land and water.

2.6

Decision guidelines

Before deciding on an application, in addition to the decision guidelines in Clause 65, the responsible authority must consider, as appropriate:

- the State Planning Policy Framework and the Local Planning Policy Framework, including the Municipal Strategic Statement and local planning policies;
- any relevant local structure plan affecting the land;
- the effect that existing uses may have on the proposed use;
- the drainage of the land;
- the availability of and connection of services;
- the effect of traffic to be generated on roads;
- the interim use of those parts of the land not required for the proposed use.

2.7
