Before deciding on application the responsible authority must consider:

- any written comments received in response to the display of the development plan;

- the impact of the proposed development and use on adjacent and nearby properties, roads and other physical infrastructure;
- the impact of traffic generated by the proposal and whether it is likely to require special traffic management or control works in the neighbourhood;
- points of access to and from the land and whether they are suitably located;
- the layout and management of carparking areas and accessways to and from them;
- any relevant Council policy;
- any applicable heritage study and any applicable conservation study;
- the character and appearance of any proposed buildings or works and their impact on the heritage significance, character and appearance of any heritage places; and
- whether the location, bulk, height and appearance of any proposed buildings or works will be in keeping with the character, amenity and streetscape of the area
